

By-Law 2023-03

Late Fee Bylaw

WHEREAS Council for the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors has previously passed by-laws from time to time establishing fees payable by members, applicants, and individuals to the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors for matters prescribed in the Surveyors Act and, generally, for the operation and funding of the affairs of the Association;

AND WHEREAS administrative time of the AOLS staff is being wasted on collecting annual dues that are overdue;

NOW THEREFORE Council of the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors hereby enacts as follows:

1. By-Law 2015-01 and 2018-01 are rescinded;
2. Where the Council for the Association wishes to encourage participation as an associate, Council may, by resolution, waive part or all of the prescribed fee for an associate or group of associates (e.g. students enrolled in a post-secondary school course in professional land surveying);
3. Where the Council for the Association wishes to acknowledge the contributions of retired members and encourage ongoing participation as a retired member, Council may, by resolution, waive part or all of the prescribed fee for a retired member or group of retired members (e.g. retired members over a certain age);
4. Where any annual fee remains unpaid after the due date, the defaulter shall pay to the Association a late penalty fee of 15% of the annual fee in addition to the any other fees that are owing;
